

Kenwood KIV-BT901

General features:

- digital media receiver with AM/FM tuner (doesn't play CDs)
- built-in MOSFET amplifier (22 watts RMS/50 peak x 4 channels)
- 3-inch color TFT display with variable-color button and display illumination
- built-in Bluetooth by Parrot for hands-free calling
- PANDORA® Internet radio connectivity
- internal 512MB flash drive
- remote control

Audio features:

- plays audio, video, and picture files from USB memory devices
- DSP features settings for car type, speaker size, digital time alignment, front and rear high-pass crossovers, and subwoofer low-pass crossover
- 3-band parametric equalizer with 8 presets
- Supreme + technology to improve high-frequency response of compressed music files
- Highway Sound compensates for road noise
- dual-zone audio capabilities

Expandability:

- iPod direct control with optional KCA-IP202 cable
- Zune control and charging
- compatible with Kenwood's HD Radio™ tuner
- inputs: rear USB and A/V inputs, rear-view camera input
- outputs: A/V output, 6-channel preamp outputs (4-volt front, rear, subwoofer)

Other features and specs:

- compatible with most factory steering wheel audio controls (adapter required and sold separately)
- warranty: 1 year